1. Academic excellence
2. Social activities
3. Cultural activities
4. Sport activities

Purpose of student council

An group run by students under college supervision is called the Students' Council. The student council's mission is to provide students with a platform for leadership development via the planning and execution of campus events and community service initiatives. The student council serves as the voice of the students and organises activities that boost school spirit and community welfare. They communicate student opinions, passions, and issues to the collegiate community. The Student Council operates according to legislative norms. The student body president hears proposals, puts them to a vote, and then approves them. Any student who wants to get more active with leadership, organisational behaviour, planning events, or campus life is welcome to join.

Role of student council

The council's purpose is to inspire students and give them opportunities to exercise their leadership skills. The president, vice president, secretary, and the remaining students are chosen as members of the student council. Additionally, one professor is proposed for election to the Student Council. The student council serves as a conduit between the student body and management.

Student council consistently represents student concerns. Additionally, they coordinate a variety of student welfare events.

To foster teamwork among the director, staff, and students in order to improve college life for MCC students.
